

The Germanic Society of Forensic Linguistics (GSFL)

in cooperation with the UNIVERSITY OF YORK is pleased to announce the first call for papers for the

Sixth Annual Roundtable in Forensic Linguistics and Phonetics

August 2nd - August 5th, 2018 in York, England

The purpose of the GSFL Roundtable is to provide FL/FP researchers, educators, and practitioners the opportunity to present and discuss their work within an interdisciplinary, supportive, and respectful scholarly environment. Invited topics for paper and poster abstracts include but are not limited to the following four areas:

FORENSIC LINGUISTICS authorship analysis; text comparison; plagiarism detection; linguistic profiling; discourse and speech act; corpus analysis of forensic texts (e.g. confessions, courtroom transcripts, police protocols, suicide letters, threatening letters); the language of (violent) offenders and/or victims;

FORENSIC PHONETICS AND ACOUSTICS: speaker discrimination; perceptual speaker identification; speaker profiling; earwitnesses and voice line-ups; audio authentication; audio enhancement; intra- and interspeaker variation; automatic speaker recognition; cross-linguistic voice recognition; voice comparison; forensic speech and audio-analysis;

FL/FP AND THE LAW: courtroom interpreting and translating; language testing for citizenship and asylum cases; language minorities and the law; cross-lingual legal discourse analysis; investigative interviewing and/or interrogative practices; deception detection; statutory interpretation;

FL/FP AND EDUCATION: developing FL/FP curricula; FL/FP instructional materials; developing international ties between researchers and practitioners; teaching ethical and professional standards.

All interested authors are requested to submit a 250-word abstract by March 15, 2018.

To submit your abstract, please use the following link:

<https://nick662.typeform.com/to/aAIZXW>

All submissions must be in either English, German, or Danish. After the deadline, all abstracts will be submitted to a blind review by a team of experts. For more information on the GSFL or the 2018GSFL Roundtable, please use this link:

<http://germanicsocietyforensiclinguistics.org/>

UNIVERSITY
of York