

Subscribe to 'Professional Development' emails

As we add more NAATI Test Preparations workshops to the calendar, we will be sending out emails to advise Entitlement Note holders that they are open for registration. We will be sending these emails to our 'Professional development' subscription group.

If you wish to receive an email when these workshops become available, we ask that you go in to your 'My NZSTI' profile and subscribe yourself to this group - see screenshot below:

The screenshot shows the website header for the New Zealand Society of Translators & Interpreters. The navigation menu includes 'ABOUT', 'MEMBERSHIP', 'RESOURCES', 'PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT', 'NEWS', and 'My NZSTI' (highlighted with a yellow circle). On the right, there are buttons for 'FIND AN INTERPRETER' and 'FIND A TRANSLATOR', and a 'JOIN US' link with a pencil icon.

The main content area shows the 'My NZSTI' profile with tabs for 'Contact Info', 'Address', 'Subscriptions', and 'Image'. The 'Subscriptions' tab is active, displaying the 'Email Subscriptions' section. It contains a list of subscription options with checkboxes:

- Regular newsletter
- Professional development
- Events
- Auckland news
- Wellington news
- Canterbury news
- Bay of Plenty news
- National news
- Conference news

Below the list is an 'Update' button. On the left side of the profile, a sidebar menu includes 'Dashboard', 'My details' (highlighted with a yellow circle), 'My language pairs', 'Member resources', 'Forum', 'My CPD', 'My events', and 'Account details'.
